DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 5-14 and 20-27 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on March 21, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-4, 15-19, and 28-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rethmeier, US #3,546,798.

4. Rethmeier teaches hangtags comprising connecting elements 32 extending between ends of adjacent hangtags (Figure 2) and spaced apart by openings 21. The connecting elements are severable by a pull force. Opening 36 in the hangtag body anchors fastener 37. The hangtags are connected by at least two or three connecting elements. Each tag includes an end having a substantially straight edge extending between corners on opposite sides (Figure 2). The connecting elements extend substantially the entire length of the tag.

5. Rethmeier does not specifically teach a roll of tags, however this is well known in the art. Many tags, labels, etc. are produced in rolls. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to form a roll of such labels so as to provide a large number of labels in a convenient, easy to use form. It also would have been obvious so as to provide the labels in a form in which they will not become inadvertently separated.

6. Rethmeier does not specifically teach the opening as non-circular or the body as having rounded corners. Matters relating to ornamentation only, and having no mechanical function, cannot be relied on where claims are not directed to design but are structural claims. Also, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize whatever shape opening necessary in the body to best accommodate the fastener. It also would have been obvious to utilize rounded corners so that the edge would not be sharp or become torn.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed June 27, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

8. Applicant argues that Rethmeier does not teach connecting elements spaced along substantially the entire length of the tag a short distance apart. However, as shown in Figure 2 the connecting elements extend substantially along the length of the tag and space the tags apart at 21. Applicant argues that the openings of Rethmeier are not the same as the claimed openings, however it appears that all the structural elements of the claims are shown by Rethmeier. The tags of Rethmeier may be separated by a force perpendicular to the tags edges.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
